

AN OLD MAN AFFLICTED.

WEALTHY AND DECLARED A LUNATIC AT NINETY YEARS.

The Name Smith Was Not Good Enough for Him—Story of a Long Speech.

About a month ago, Amor de Cosmos, a politician of British Columbia who is more than ninety years old, was declared a lunatic by the Supreme Court, and his large estate placed accordingly in the hands of trustees. His real name was William Smith but, thinking that too common, he long ago had it changed by the courts in California to the more aristocratic one that he has since borne. Amor de Cosmos went to British Columbia from California in 1858, and soon became a power in politics. When the province joined the Dominion he was made local premier, but he was not content until he became a member of the Dominion Parliament. There, in spite of the egotism that was his main weakness, he commanded attention and fought hard and well for the interests of his province.

A Victoria dispatch to the San Francisco Chronicle, telling of the lunacy decree regarding de Cosmos, says: "He has been credited with having made the longest speech in the history of the Dominion House, but this was a mistake, although his vanity prevented him from denying the report." Substituting the "Provincial" for the "Dominion House" the story is an old one and the writer, who read about the wonderful effort nearly if not quite a score of years ago, has never known it to have been denied. It was at the close of a session of the British Columbia Legislature, and Amor de Cosmos began talking against time to defeat a bill. Beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning he rambled along, reading extracts from books and reports, all through the day and the livelong night. At 6 in the morning he fell back exhausted into his seat, blood coozing from his blistered lips. He had held the floor twenty hours.

Since the remarkable old man's mind has given way, his egotism has become more pronounced than ever. The dispatch already quoted from says: "He imagines that he was a prominent member of the old Scotch Parliament; that he sat in the Parliament at Westminster, and that his ability being at once recognized, he was promoted to the upper house. He also thinks he sat in the old house in College Green, when Ireland had her native parliament, and came to this continent to educate the people in parliamentary usages."

A Furniture Deal.

Ordway & Porter, the enterprising furniture dealers on Hotel street, have another surprise for the Honolulu public, having during the last few days received a large invoice of furniture of the latest designs direct from the factory.

This firm are certainly abreast of the times, as they import direct from the factory, thereby doing away with the jobber or middleman's profit. This little stroke of business ability enables them to sell at a very low figure, and people who are thinking of buying furniture will do well to inspect the stock before purchasing elsewhere.

The goods are ready for inspection and comprise bedroom sets, extension tables, sideboards, secretary bookcases, chiffoniers, ward robes, etc., etc., all from the very latest designs and at prices to suit the times.

Sound Basis.

The testimonials published by the proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla are not purchased, nor are they written up in their office, nor are they from their employees, but they are facts from truthful and grateful people, who are reliable and as worthy of confidence as if they came from your most trusted neighbor.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.

Eva, Carroll and Lily Brown, Stowe, Vermont.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"Gentlemen:—Last winter, my two girls, boy and wife were taken ill. The doctors said they were poisoned by drinking water from an old well. The two girls failed to rally under the doctor's treatment. Eva, aged four years, fell away so she only weighed 18½ lbs.; coughed all the time and was helpless. Physicians said she had Consumption."

Lily, aged eight years, was nearly as bad as Eva but being older and stronger, held up a little better. We gave them both Hood's Sarsaparilla, which built up their strength and health finely so that they became fat and plump, lively and happy. My son Carroll was in a bad condition, having a bad cough and very weak. He was obliged to lie down most of the time. One bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla put him on his feet and restored perfect health. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my children's lives."

Made Well.

Cured of Kidney Disease,

Sleeplessness, Rheumatism, and Nervousness.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co.,

Gentlemen:—For some years my kidneys have been affected, and a mild form of rheumatism afflicted me.

The worst affliction from which I suffered more or less for ten years past has been insomnia and its natural results, extreme nervousness. This grew so bad that it was often difficult for me to write my name legibly. Paine's Celery Compound has cured me of the insomnia and nervousness, so that I again enjoy refreshing sleep.

For some months last year I suffered acute pains in my chest, which almost nightly compelled me to arise from bed and walk the floor or sit up for hours. A recumbent position brought on the pains day or night; the position assumed in writing also caused them. I have been happily relieved of these various disorders by Paine's Celery Compound, and now enjoy better health than I have experienced at any time in the previous ten years.

I shall advise my friends, one and all, to try Paine's Celery Compound for such ills as I have suffered from.

Yours truly,

Charles Prosch.
